Rules and Regulations

- All persons wanting to participate in the market must be approved by Tin Roof prior to the market day.
- All persons must submit an application with a description of their items they intend to sell as well as photos.
- Vendors are only permitted to sell goods approved by Tin Roof.
- Tin Roof reserves the right to refuse any vendor at their discretion.
- All vendors products must be in compliance with state and local regulations.
- It is up to Tin Roof to decide if a vendor is in violation of rules and regulations.

Space/Set-up

- Spaces are first come, first serve
- Vendors must provide their own tents. Tents must be no larger than 10x10. All tents must be anchored and secured.

- Set up starts at 8:30 am. All vendors must be set up by the time of the event at 10 o'clock.
- Vendors must move their cars before set-up. Vendors can unload their products and supplies, then move their car across the street.
- All vendors must stay until the end of market. The market ends at 5:00pm. All vendors must be packed up by 6:30pm.
- Vendor space will be reserved once space fee is received.
- Tents are not required, it is recommended to bring a tarp to lay on the ground to protect your products.

Miscellaneous

- Electricity can be provided but is limited.
- Booth fee is non-refundable. Refunds will only be issued due to high-winds. Markets will continue if raining.
- All vendors must be registered the Wednesday prior to the market. Registration is completed by having an approved application and vendor space fee paid.
- All trash is the responsibility of the vendor. Vendor space when you leave should look the same as when you arrived.
- All vendors are to be respectful of other vendors and their merchandise.
- If you wish to sell/add products not mentioned on application, please contact Tin Roof prior to the market.
- Vendors are responsible for their own forms of payment. It is recommended to have some way to accept credit cards. Make sure to have plenty of change as well for cash transactions.
